Being a Cheerleader is a matter of enunciating clearly while screaming at the top of your lungs. It means snappy drills, hours of practice, tired muscles and tremendous self-discipline . . . Cheering a losing team is rough because you can't switch sides, but the most disconcerting part is having hundreds of people know your name.

Team captain Roger Clark uses his Skyhook against Tulane.

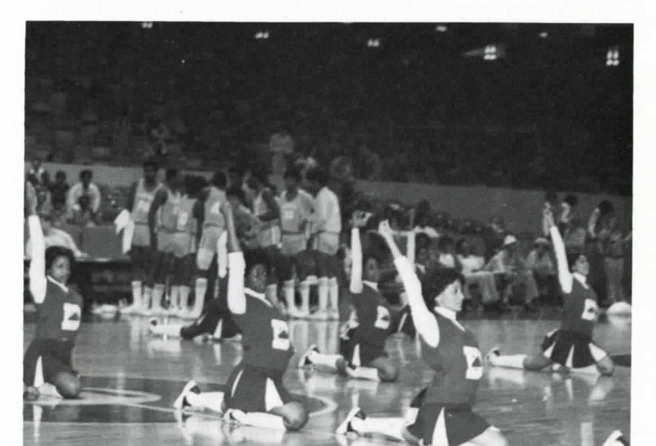

Senior Leroy Ferrell on the move. Leroy averaged 5.5 assists per game. He was also the most improved player this year.

Senior Joe Hicks, 6'6" and 190 lbs. averaged 5 rebounds per game.

The man who has given hope to D.U.'s basketball future, Coach Brown looks on, while his righthand man, Coach Tillman, ponders the action.

The Season Starts With a Win, Ends With a Fight, With Little Inbetween

Russell scores a Snowbird against Texas College. During the season Buckner averaged 18 points per game.

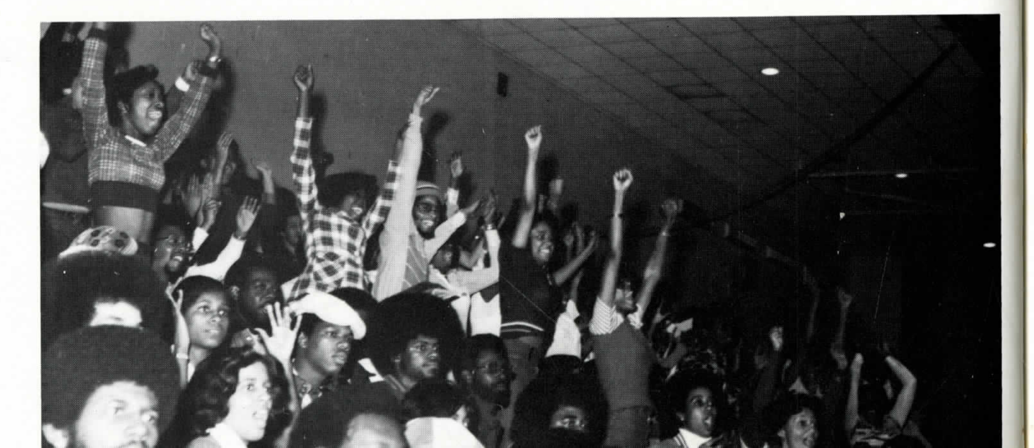

Kensey on the press, where to from here? What's on your mind?

Billy Ray goes high in the air for two points. Roger Clark looks to make sure.

When the season opened there was the usual expectation of a great year. The Blue Devils lost only four seniors at the close of the '74-75 season. Some people thought that this year would be the "big one." As the year progressed it was evident that the expectations were incorrect. Although the team had the enthusiasm of the fans, it was a difficult road to victory in many games.

The season opened with a win over Texas College, followed by a six point deficit against Virginia State in the Dillard and Xavier Double-Header. A three game losing streak was started with the loss to Virginia State. They managed to stop the heart-breaking losing streak by winning five in a row. This short-lived glory was terminated by a loss to Spring Hill.

The Devils traveled to Tallahassee, Florida and first place in the tournament. The Blue Devils played at their best while participating in the tournament. The first place trophy wasn't the only one brought home. Russell Buckner was awarded the most valuable player award.

It was a disaster in the Dome! The results of the '75-76 City Series were a far cry from a first place position last year. After starting the series with a sour note, the tone remained the same until the fourth and final game. Dillard slipped past S.U.N.O. with a final score of 95-94.

This year has proven to be a season of experience gaining. This season was without a doubt one of inconsistency, but as usual . . . "maybe next year."

A basketball team is an integral part of any school, especially a University. The spirit, excitement, tension and thrills of a game somehow cannot be separated from the students who watch, or the players who participate, without separating from the whole and leaving it incomplete.

This year a new type of excitement was added to the basketball season. The team of young ladies that was formed last year competed with other universities this season. The young ladies have allowed the fans to view the sports world through a clearer glass. Women and men together are now giving the Dillard fans double enjoyment.

With easy victories over Spring Hill, University of New Orleans and Spring Hill for a second time the "Blue Devilettes" started the season off with three wins in a row. The Devilettes faced their defeat while playing Tougaloo at Dillard. A massive defense and a superfast fast break shattered the Devilettes' game plan. The loss to Tougaloo started a four game losing streak. The Devilettes were defeated by Nicholls State, Newcomb College and Tougaloo for a second time.

Things looked up on February 4th when the Devilettes defeated the female "Gold Rush." The Devilettes faced no real problem while playing the "Gold Rush." It was probably the easiest victory for the team.

After the victory over Xavier, Newcomb College visited the Devilettes at home and brought a bit of bad news. Newcomb defeated the Devilettes again. During the last five minutes the team fought with everything they had to pull themselves within four points of their opponent. At the tone of the final buzzer the score was Dillard 44 Newcomb 48.

The Devilettes didn't taste victory again until February 26th. The "Gold Rush" were again the victim of defeat. The Devilettes presented the female "Gold Rush" with a gift containing the score Dillard 53 Xavier 38.

The final game of the season was played at the University of New Orleans. The Devilettes lost to U.N.O. ending their season with a 5-8 record.

BETA PHI

History of Alpha Phi Alpha

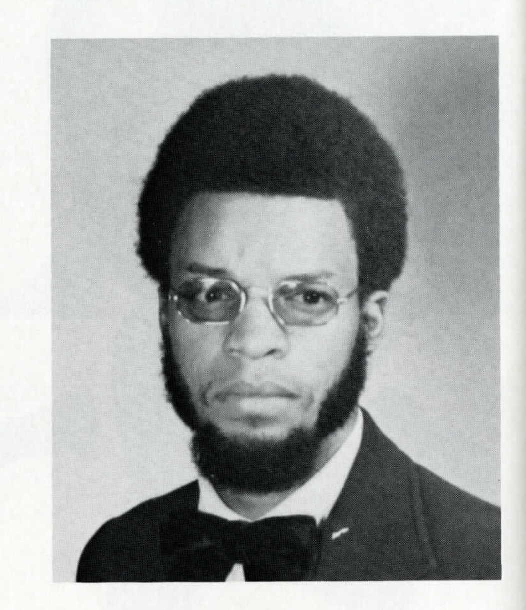

Alpha Phi Alpha was founded in 1906 with the motto "First of all servants of all, we shall transcend all." Alpha Phi Alpha holds that man can only realize and fulfill his ultimate self by transcending himself through service to his fellow man.

The Alpha men of Beta Phi chapter strive to uphold these ideals to the utmost in all of their endeavors.

Alpha Phi Omega was founded in 1952 by Frank Reed Horton, when he sought to establish an organization to assist in molding the characters of young men to withstand the test of time. Alpha Phi Omega was founded under the cardinal principles of leadership, friendship, and service. Service to all humanity is Alpha Phi Omega's ultimate goal.

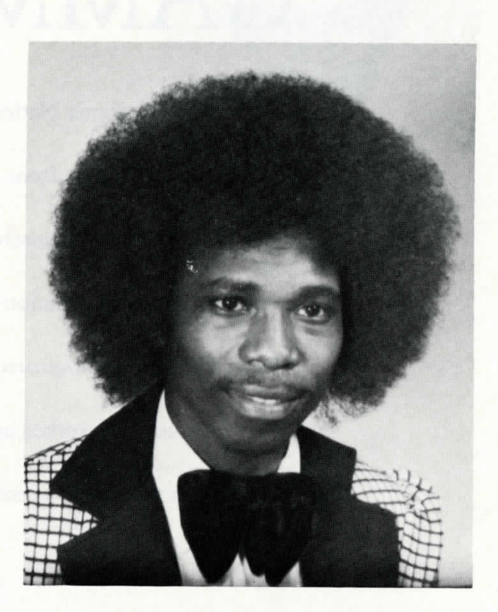

The Brothers of Alpha Phi Omega participate in service projects on the national, community, and campus level. The Brothers of Chi Upsilon Chapter have actively engaged themselves in raising money for the American Heart Fund Association and the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation, becoming Big Brothers, making Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, and many other worthy service projects. As in the previous five years, Chi Upsilon Chapter will continue to concentrate its efforts toward serving humanity.

GAMMA SIGMA SIGMA

Gamma Sigma Sigma National Service Sorority was founded October 10, 1952 in New York City. It all started when a group of women from Drexel Institute of Technology heard that women were hoping to find other college service groups to bind themselves together into a national service organization. These women devoted their time to devising a national constitution that would serve all mankind.

Delta Phi Chapter originated on February 24, 1974. Twenty-five young women with the line name Alpha Eternal strove vigorously and worked untiringly to make Delta Phi a sorority with high ideals of service, friendship and equality; giving it a purpose of assembling college and university women in the spirit of service to humanity.

Editor's Message

The preparing of a yearbook takes a lot of hard work and determination. It was the hope of the staff to improve the quality and meaningfulness of this publication made especially for the Dillard Students. We truly hope that we have captured the spirit of the year 1976 in the Le Diable Bleu. It was my pleasure to serve in such an important and functional position.

I would like to give my special thanks to the '76 Le Diable Bleu staff members who devoted their time and ideas; Mr. Fred Elsing, Jr. of Taylor Publishing Company who helped iron out the technical problems; Dr. Norman Roussell whose interest and concern as an advisor was an inspiration, and Dr. Ralph A. Rogers who amply took over the advisorship. Also my thanks to Richard Eason for being such a great friend; Miss Marva Smith for her understanding and patience, Joseph Clements for initiating our first ad campaign, and very special thanks to Mr. Larry Durant who said "you can" and helped me make it through.

EPILOGUE

Beginnings
(The First Minute of a New Day)

We're Sliding through completely new beginnings.
We're Searching out for every doubt and winning.
We want to be free
and yet we have no idea
Why we are struggling here faced with our every fear
just to survive.

We've heard the sound and come around to listening.
We've touched the vibes time after time insisting (that) we know what life means.
Still we can't break away
from dues we've got to pay
We hope will some how say that we're alive
